A Sincere Declaration of Purpose

To those seeking truth and rest,

The foundation of my message rests wholly on the divine truth revealed in the beginning: Jesus Christ, The Word, was with God and was God. Through Him all things were made, bringing life, light, grace, and truth. I affirm this singular, unwavering truth: I am and remain a faithful Christian.

My entire ministry is the proclamation of the King’s Doctrine, which focuses on the absolute Lordship of Christ. Because God is "super loving," He sent Jesus to fix the problem of sin. The core idea is that Jesus did everything necessary to bring people back to God, and we can enter God's rest through faith in His finished work. This teaching is the official announcement of His completed victory, known as Maranatha.

I urge all people to seek the truth in all matters. If anyone were to choose not to accept me or my teaching, they would not be rejecting an established church, a religious cult, or an organization. In fact, they would only be rejecting a Christian, and more importantly a fellow person. My sincere desire is that you find Christ.

I pray that the Holy Spirit (the Advocate or Spirit of truth), the constant invisible helper, will testify the Truth to anyone who hears my message. I hope that by faith, my message will be accepted.

Maranatha — the victory is complete.

Signed,

Tyson Jay Palmer
Dei Gratia Rex